1. PURPOSE

This procedure supports the successful alignment of new staff with Lambert & Rehbein's strategic direction by ensuring employees:

- are inducted effectively and understand their role and responsibilities
- understand Lambert & Rehbein's culture, working environment, and organisational structure
- have satisfactorily completed the mandatory induction modules
- are aware of key policies and procedures

2. SCOPE

This procedure will apply to all new employees of Lambert & Rehbein, wherever their location and whatever their position, role and target duties.

3. DEFINITIONS

Induction -

Induction is the process for welcoming newly recruited employees and supporting them to adjust to their new roles and working environments as well as Lambert & Rehbein's policies, procedures and general workplace rules.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1. HR Coordinator and HR Administrator

The HR Coordinator and the HR Administrator are responsible for coordinating and assisting with the induction and onboarding of all new employees. Form QA-F-050 is used to guide the process.

4.2. IT Manager

The IT Manager is responsible for introducing the new employee to the policies and procedures relating to the IT system including log-on security, intranet, file structures and Helpdesk. Form QA-F-050 is used to guide the process.

4.3. Division Manager

The Division Manager will conduct a meeting with the new employee to:

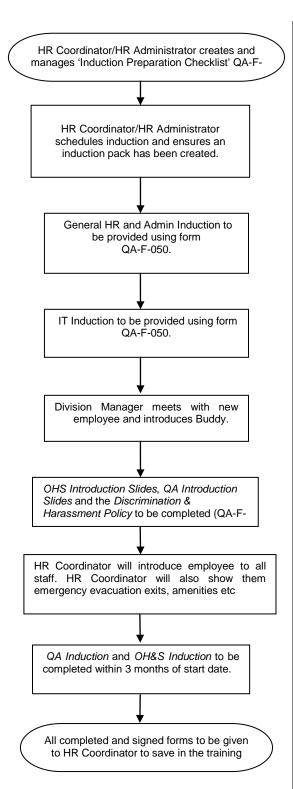

- explain the employee's role and responsibilities:
- explain the probation process;
- introduce the new employee to key colleagues in the their Division; and
- provide the new employee with the required/appropriate materials such as information about projects and the strategic objectives of the Division

To assist with a new employee's onboarding, the Division Manager will assign an office Buddy who provides advice and guidance on the different aspects of working at Lambert & Rehbein. A Buddy is also a "sounding board" who offers encouragement as the new employee acclimates to Lambert & Rehbein's culture and workplace.

5. REQUIREMENTS

5.1. Flowchart: Induction Process

- On receipt of new employee's signed Employment Agreement, HR Coordinator/HR Administrator creates an Induction Preparation Checklist QA-F-048 for the new employee.
- HR Coordinator/HR Administrator ensures all tasks listed on the 'Induction Preparation Checklist' are completed prior to the new employee's start date.
- HR Coordinator/HR Administrator schedules induction and ensures an induction pack has been created.
  - HR Coordinator/HR Administrator must ensure that interstate offices have a current version of the induction pack prior to new employee commencement.
- On the day of induction, the new starter is greeted by the HR Coordinator/HR Administrator or Division Manager. The HR Coordinator/HR Administrator will conduct an office orientation and introduce the new starter to Directors and staff.
- 5. The HR Coordinator/HR Administrator presents the new employee with their induction pack and explains the induction agenda in accordance with QA-F-50. The agenda is to be checked off and signed by each inductor and the employee at the end of the process and returned to the HR Coordinator/HR Administrator for filing.
- The HR Coordinator/HR Administrator provides a general HR and Admin induction as well as a general financial processes and administration induction including:
  - Superannuation Fund
  - Timesheets
  - Petty cash
  - Expense claims
  - Document production standards
  - Company templates
- The IT Manager will provide an overall induction on the IT system. Form QA-F-050 is used as a checklist and is to be completed and signed off at the end of the induction.
- The new employee must read the OH&S Introduction Slides, the QA Introduction Slides and Discrimination & Harassment Policy on the first day of employment and sign the appropriate sections on QA-F-050.
- 9. The OHS Director or delegate will provide a general induction on the OH&S systems within 3 months from start date. Form QA-F-050 is used as a checklist and is to be completed and signed off at the end of the induction.
- 10. The Quality Director or delegate will provide a general induction on the quality systems within 3 months of start date. Form QA-F-050 is used as a checklist and is to be completed and signed off at the end of the induction.
- 11. The new employee's "Buddy" will
  - show the new employee around the local area including shops, bus station, train, entry/exit to the building
  - Provide support and answer queries
- All completed and signed induction forms are to be given to the HR Coordinator to save into the training folder.
